Steve VK and Ben Cole inducted Bob Robinson as the newest member of our Kiwanis family. Welcome Bob!!!! It's great to have you!!!!

The Loonie Bin:

Doug Downey chipped in a loonie for Tim Timpano and family who are currently riding the cups at Disney World. I suggest Space Mountain on an empty stomach!!!! Doug also attended the Beth McKean's CD release at St. Paul's Centre.

The Don Haskins rink featuring curling tough guy Mark Goode, cleaned up at the BBBS Brier this past weekend. Sounds like it was a clean sweep!!!!

Bob Brown has new knees!!!! He'll be dancing the jitterbug before you know it!!!! Great stuff Bob!!!!

Noel Sterne's son was between the pipes as he led his team to bronze in the Christian Hockey League playoffs. Nicely done!!!

Stevie Ray VK and wife Marnie took a last-minute road trip to the City of Brotherly Love to surprise daughters Katy and Emily at their Lax tourney. Groovy stuff Stevo!!!!

Pres Steph is happy that BBBS raised over $19,000.00 smackaroos at their annual curling bonspiel this past weekend. She also chipped in a loonie for hubby Keith who became a partner at his machine shop. Good show Old Boy!!!!!!

Today's Guest Speakers:

Kerrie Pellarin and Irfan Toor from Twin Lakes Secondary School were our guest speakers today. They spoke about the Partners in Education, Adventure and Community (P.E.A.C.) program that is offered at T.L.S.S. The program endeavors to go beyond traditional education by fostering community involvement and stewardship amongst its participants. Along with compulsory courses the program also promotes team building, mentorship and experiential learning as part of the curriculum. The goal of the program is to build the community leaders of tomorrow. Thank you to Kerrie and Irfan for being with us today.

Other Kiwanis Stuff:
